Deciding the correctness of views of Tax counsel

① View: Doctrine of Total Merger is applicable & revision proposed is bad in law

As per [Sec 263] of Income Tax Act, if an order passed by Assessing officer has been subject to appeal, the same cannot be revised.
However, at the same time, the Power of PCIT or CIT under ~~(1)~~ ② Section 263.(1) shall extend to such matters as had not been considered by appeal.

Therefore, Partial Merger doctrine is Applicable.

View of ~~②~~ Tax counsel is not correct.

(2) View : Action of CIT is not tenable in law.

As per [Sec 264] of Income Tax Act, PCIT/CIT shall not revise any order u/s 264, where an appeal against the order lies to the CIT(A) or Appeal Tribunal.

Doctrine of Total merger is applicable.

Therefore, CIT is correct in dismissing the appeal on that ground that the assessment is subject matter of appeal.

∴ View of Tax counsel is not Correct

Course of Action to be pursued by Company in wrt to Income Tax Appeals:

AY 23-24

The company has contested few additions to CIT(A) & for balance other additions, CIT has invoked the Revisionary power u/s 263.

Company can appeal against the order of CIT u/s 263 at ITAT level.

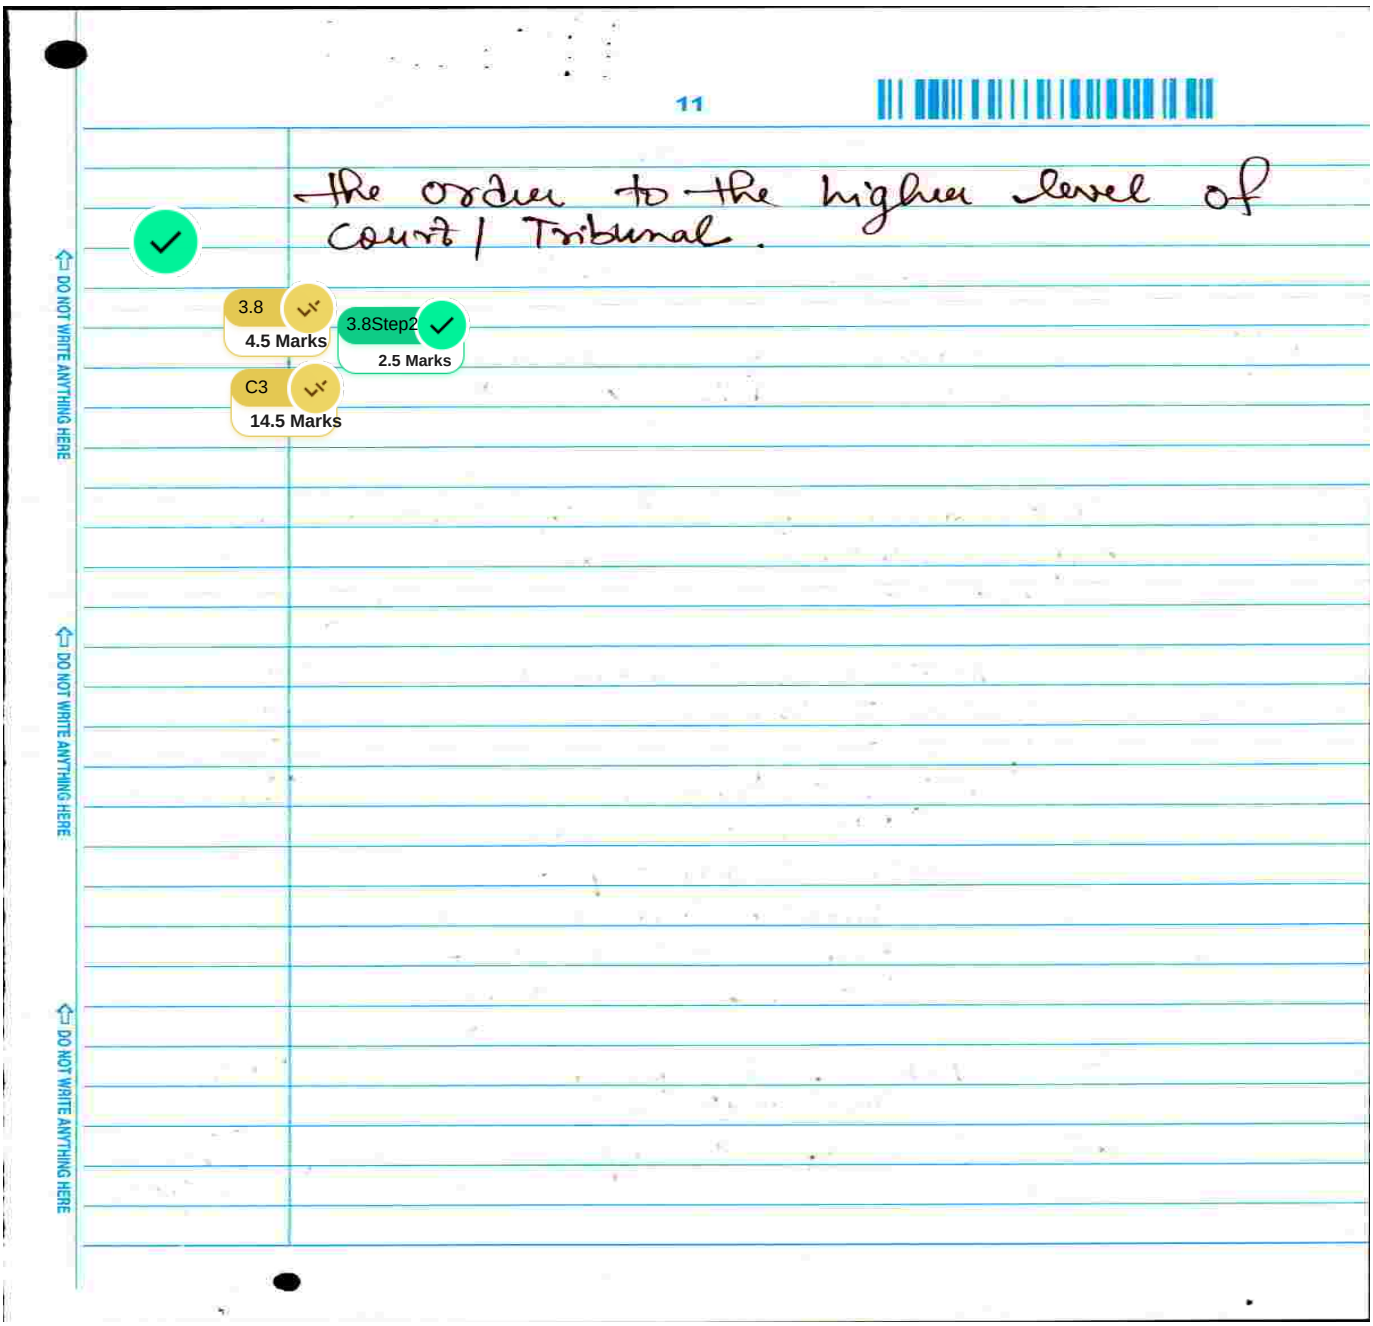

AY 24-25

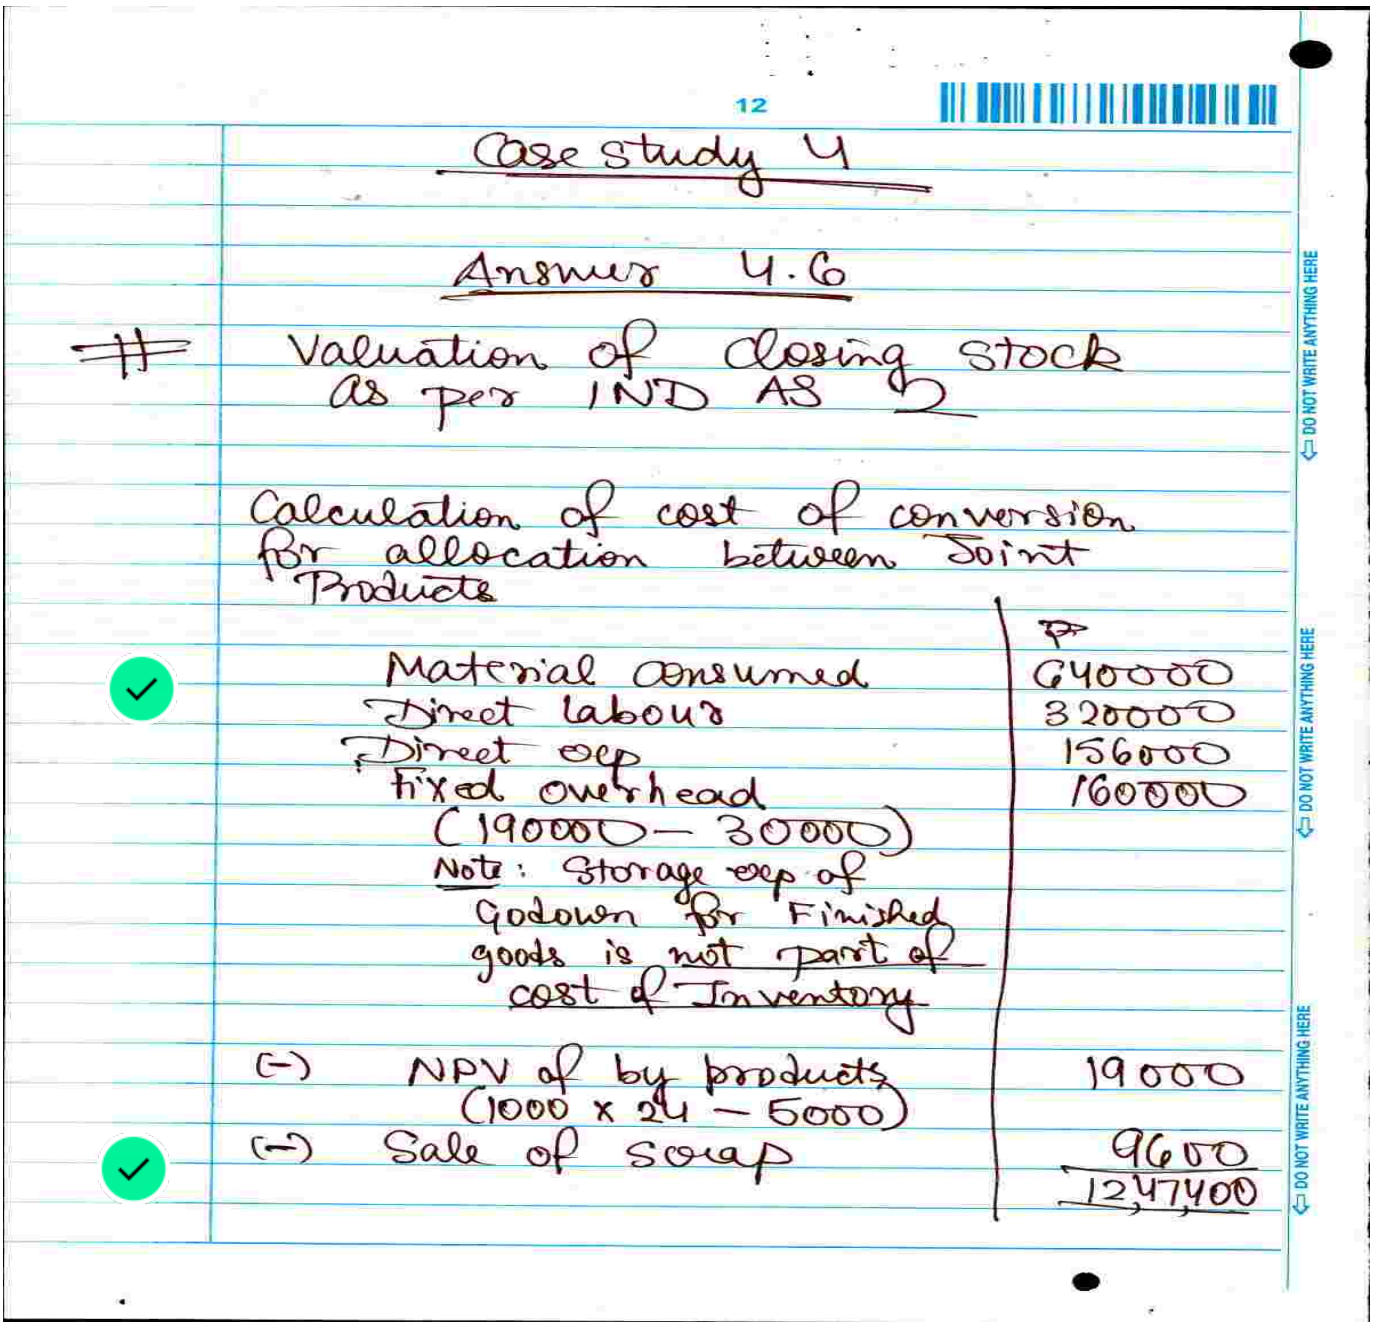

Company has contested 1 matter in appeal & other matter has been applied for revision u/s 264.

∴ Revision u/s 264 is not possible in the given case
